

Captain Anil Varma

Capt. Anil Varma was a former Master, Deputy Marine Superintendent and Manager in Shipping Corporation of India at their Head Quarters in Bombay before switching to an Academic career. He is currently tenured with the Singapore Maritime Academy, Singapore Polytechnic as Senior Lecturer and Manager (Q&E) in the International Programs Division.

His current areas of Academic development and education work include Advanced Electronic Navigation and Communication Systems including Simulation, Tanker (Oil, Chemical & Gas) Technologies, Bunkering Systems, Logistics & Transport Modelling and Shipping Business Simulation. He was formerly in charge of the SP's Maritime IT Lab in which he assisted in the development and configuration of an integrated and interactive shipping business software suite and ECDIS. Currently he is in charge of the Department's Quality Certification and Assets.

Capt. Anil Varma holds a Master (FG) from India, a PGDM In Operations Research & Computer Science (Bombay University), an Advanced Diploma in Quality Engineering (Singapore), and a Masters in Business Administration (Technology Management)

Capt. Varma has undertaken numerous consulting assignments in the areas of Shipping Business, Quality, Security, Safety and Management - in India, Singapore, Malaysia, Brunei and Indonesia as well as read numerous papers in international conferences in Singapore and in international venues.

Capt Varma currently serves as a committee member in the IEEE (EngMgt) Society – Singapore Chapter, serves the SGS Certification and Quality Committee – as an Advisory Committee Member, as an SAC Assessor (SS 600 & SS 524), an Observer in the SSA Bunkering Committee and was a former TuV Sud/PSB's External Auditor.

Capt. Varma has been involved in numerous development and training related work from its very inception in SMA and Singapore including Bunkering and Tanker Safety Courses: