Workshop –
Maritime Disputes and Arbitration

Grand Copthorne Waterfront, Singapore

November 08 (9:15 - 16:30)

Hi Friend,

Meet Our Experts

In dry bulk shipping, results in dispute resolution and arbitration may be determined by wordings in the Charter Party clauses that may or may not reflect the full intent of agreement. An understanding of how LMAA and the industry interpret clauses of some of the frequent disputes may equip you with tools to better handle your commercial operations. Please join our workshop with maritime experts for professional presentations, case studies and interactive discussion.

Topic includes:

- Tips for Success in Maritime Arbitrations & Case Study
- Drafting your Speed & Consumption Clauses - Significance of key wording

Who Should attend

Dry Bulk Shipowners, Operations Directors, Commercial Managers, Chartering managers and Fleet Managers

Martin Shields

Director, StormGeo Shipping UK

Martin spent 29 years working in the optimum ship routing business, helping build Applied Weather Technology (AWT) and then StormGeo into global leaders in the field of ship routing. Has a keen interest in performance disputes and their resolution and is a supporting member of the LMAA.

Simon Milnes

Junior Counsel, 20 Essex Street UK

Simon specializes in complex international litigation and arbitration. He has acted as sole or lead counsel in numerous arbitrations under a range of institutional rules, including ICC, LCIA, SIAC, HKIAC, LMAA, and in ad hoc arbitrations both in London and the ASEAN region.

Please feel free to forward this invitation to any of your colleagues who may be interested in the event. We hope to see you there!
