Dates: 26-28 April 2017

Venue: Marina Bay Sands, Singapore

The biennial Singapore Maritime Technology Conference and Exhibition (SMTC) 2017 is organised by the Maritime and Port Authority of Singapore and would be held in conjunction with Singapore Maritime Week 2017.

This year's conference will feature 2 key tracks with focus on technical and industry aspects.

5th International Port-Maritime Technology Conference (MTEC) 2017

- Technical coverage on international maritime science, technology and R&D
- Call for Papers, with abstracts selected by MTEC secretariat
- Opportunity for R&D project owners to showcase projects and pitch for a grant

SMTC is attended by shipping companies, port operators, maritime and port authorities, technology companies, classification societies, tertiary research institutes, and executives involved in maritime technology research, development, innovation development and application. The inaugural SMTC was held in April 2015 and had attracted about 520 participants from 21 countries with close to 20% of participants attending from overseas.

2nd Singapore Maritime Technology Conference (SMTC) 2017

- Will cover leading port and maritime industry trends and technological developments
- Industry applications of technology, case studies, and round table discussions

MTEC is a technical conference series held alternately between Singapore and Norway biennially. This year, it is organised by the Maritime and Port Authority of Singapore (MPA), Research Council of Norway, Singapore Maritime Institute and MARINTEK, partnering the National University of Singapore, Nanyang Technological University, Ngee Ann Polytechnic and Singapore Polytechnic
